INSIDE A HIPPIE COMMUNE

This is an exclusive true story about Holidays Hippy Commune in the Santa Cruz Mountains in 1967-68. The book begins with stories leading up to the time of the commune, the commune itself, and other chapters about Ben Lomond, Santa Cruz, Scotts Valley, Monterey, & Big Sur during those historical years. Chapters on The Catalyst, Hip Pocket Bookstore, Merry Pranksters, The Barn, Monterey Pop Festival, Ken Kesey, Red Dog Saloon, and more. There are black & white photographs on every page by numerous photographers. A coffee table book. Accompanied by a Film Documentary with 3 films taken at the commune and a CD Soundtrack of music from the Commune.
